Review: Booklet contains two important documents, the report on 20 November 1950, of Feng Wen-pin, secretary-general of New Democracy Youth Corps, on "The Present Condition and Work of the Youth Corps" to the Central Committee of the China New Democracy Youth Corps; and the decision of this committee regarding the launching of the increase production and economy drive.

Feng stated that there are 5,180,000 corps members, a 27-fold increase over the 1949 enrollment, and that peasant youths constitute 52.11 percent of the membership, workers 33.88 percent, and students 11.44 percent. Feng discussed the participation of the corps in the land-reform movement, in the labor emulation campaign and in the campaign to suppress counter-revolutionaries.
